BC INSTITUTE – PMAC 17th ANNUAL WORKSHOP

'Triple Bottom Line – People, Planet, Profit'

SEPTEMBER 16th - 18th 2009

The theme of this year's workshop is "Triple Bottom Line – People, Planet, Profit" being held at the new Vancouver Island Conference Centre in beautiful Nanaimo, BC September 16th – 18th, 2009.

Workshop Chair Alan McDougall, the workshop committee and BC Institute staff have been busy at work putting together what promises to be an excellent program for this year's event offering outstanding value and great opportunities for networking and professional development for our members and the supply chain management community.

Whether a C.P.P. or not, this is your opportunity to take advantage of the educational and networking opportunities provided with this workshop and perhaps a bit of down time away from the day to day office environment at this beautiful location. We trust your experience will be a great one as the culmination of efforts of the Volunteer Committee, BC Institute Staff, participation of presenters, and of course you the delegates!

ENTERTAINMENT

Thursday Evening: Dinner/Entertainment/Silent Auction – Dress Code: Semi-Formal. We will start off the evening with cocktail hour at 6:00 p.m. and start the bidding on the silent auction items. Then you are invited to sit back and enjoy the delicious meal.

The silent auction items will be on display and open for bidding until after dinner. Entertainment during cocktail hour/dinner will be provided by a local Harpist with after dinner entertainment provided by “Wunderbread”. The show consists of six musicians featuring a three piece horn section. With non-stop sets, multiple costume changes, choreographed moves and wireless microphones for crowd interaction; the energy coming off the stage leaves nobody out of the party.

We will again have a silent auction with lots of great items. If your organization is interested in contributing an item please contact BC Institute PMAC ops@bci-pmac.bc.ca

WORKSHOP VENUE

Known as the “Harbour City,” picturesque Nanaimo, British Columbia welcomes the 17th Annual PMAC Workshop With breathtaking views of oceanfront scenery and stunning mountains to the charming downtown area, exciting attractions, and friendly people, Nanaimo is the premier gateway to Vancouver Island. From its beginnings as home of five Coast Salish villages, Nanaimo became a Hudson’s Bay Company outpost 150 years ago. Driven by coal and resource extraction, it has grown to become a thriving port city on Vancouver Island’s midriff.

Centrally located on the eastern shores of Vancouver Island, Nanaimo brims with natural beauty, arts and culture, rich history, and limitless activities. The 5km Harbourside Walkway is mere steps from the Centre, a perfect escape after the day for a stroll in the sea air.

As Canada’s newest conference facility, the new Vancouver Island Conference Centre offers 38,000 square feet of state of the art meeting space. For a virtual tour of the Conference Centre, visit www.viconference.com
